
Leading In-House Life Sciences Lawyer Andrea Paul Joins WilmerHale

SEPTEMBER 25, 2025

Andrea Paul, a leading life sciences attorney, will join WilmerHale as a Partner in its Boston office on Monday, October 6, 2025. Ms. Paul brings extensive life sciences experience advising clients on complex legal and transactional matters, including corporate governance, disclosure, capital markets, and strategic transactions.

Ms. Paul's practice will focus on counseling life sciences clients across a broad range of issues, including corporate and securities, corporate governance, public offerings and other capital-raising transactions. She will also assist clients with matters involving compensation and benefits, collaborations and licensing, and M&A.

"We are delighted to welcome Andrea Paul to WilmerHale. Her impressive background and client-focused approach will further strengthen our practice and enhance our services to life sciences clients across the United States and globally," said Anjan Sahni, Managing Partner of WilmerHale.

WilmerHale's Transactional Department is recognized for its breadth and depth, serving clients in diverse industries, including life sciences, technology, finance, and private equity. The group offers comprehensive support in corporate finance, licensing, strategic alliances, mergers and acquisitions, executive compensation, tax, commercial and real estate.

"Andrea's in-depth experience and understanding of the life sciences sector from the perspective of an outside counsel and from the inside are exceptional," said Judith Hasko, Co-Chair of the firm's Life Sciences Group and incoming Chair of the firm's Transactional Department. "Her addition to our team reflects WilmerHale's commitment to providing innovative and strategic counsel for our life sciences clients."

While sharing her thoughts on the decision to join WilmerHale, Ms. Paul said: "Having worked with WilmerHale for many years as a client, I am excited to join the firm and contribute to its outstanding reputation for delivering sophisticated, practical solutions to clients' most complex challenges. I look forward to supporting our clients as they work to deliver important therapies and medical solutions to patients in the dynamic life sciences industry."

Ms. Paul received her BA in Art History from Columbia University in 2003 and her JD from Harvard

Law School in 2008. She began her career at an AmLaw 50 firm in London in 2008, then moved to Boston in 2013, where she practiced at an AmLaw 100 firm until 2016. Most recently, she served as Chief Legal Officer and Corporate Secretary at Zentalis Pharmaceuticals.
